Office Hours:

Whenever I am in my office — below are typical times (but subject to change):

Monday through Thursday:

10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.; 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Friday:

No set times.

E-mail List:

It is essential that you register for e-mail updates as these updates serve as the official source of all class announcements. Please submit your name and preferred e-mail address to me directly or via e-mail if you have not already been confirmed as being on the e-mail list.

Attendance:

- You are expected to attend every class meeting.
- Prompt Arrival: You are expected to be in your seat and ready to start when class is scheduled to start. It is unprofessional and impolite to arrive at or after the start of class.
- Tardy: You are tardy if you (1) arrive late, (2) leave early, or (3) leave in the middle of class and return. Three tardies equates to one absence. (If you are really creative, you could come late, leave and return during class, and then leave early and get one absence in one day even though you are in class for awhile!)
- Excessive Absences: Other than in exceptional circumstances, if you accrue four (4) or more absences, you will be automatically dropped from this course. Notice will be provided after the third absence. You may petition for relief from this rule by submitting a sworn affidavit along with supporting materials to document the reason for your absences. Note that your petition must show a justifiable reason for all your absences, not just the fifth and subsequent absences.

Class Preparation:

- You must be prepared for every class.
- You must be prepared to discuss the assigned material.

- Your final grade is subject to a one level reduction (e.g., from a B to a C+) for being unprepared.

Technology Etiquette:

- Turn off all mobile communication including cell phones prior to the beginning of class.
- Boot up computers before class starts.
- Turn off computer audio.
- Disable distracting screen savers.
- Use an adequately charged battery or a power cord to avoid running out of power and the associated low battery warning noises.
- Do not use your computer for purposes that are not related to class. For example, do not write or reply to e-mail or instant messages, surf the Internet, work on your Facebook or LinkedIn page, tweet, etc.

Syllabus:

Assignments are subject to change. Updates will be sent to all students via e-mail.

Assignment Instructions:

1. Due Dates

All written assignments are due at the beginning of class on the indicated dates.

2. Late Penalties

Extensions will not be granted. A penalty will be imposed of 2 points per hour (or fraction thereof) that the assignment is late, not to exceed 20 points per 24 hour period. No negative grades will be awarded; however, all assignments must be submitted to pass the course.

⁴ As this is a “learning” assignment, points will be awarded primarily on the effort reflected by the draft rather than the result.

⁵ Point value will depend on complexity of client’s situation and will be announced several weeks prior to the due date.

3. Identification of Assignments

Use your special project number, not your name, on all assignments.

4. Applicable Law and Citations

You may select any state to use as “your state” in completing the assignments. I recommend that you select the state in which you intend to practice.

If you select another state, please cite (in BLUEBOOK form) to the applicable statutory or judicial authority supporting your submissions and include copies of the relevant authority on which you have clearly marked (e.g., by highlighting or underlining) the applicable language which supports your answers.

5. Format

Textual material must be typed or electronically printed with all margins between 1 and 1½ inches. A 12 point font should be used for the main text.

6. Individual Work Product

Collaboration on the assignments is strictly prohibited unless otherwise indicated. You may, however, consult any materials you wish.

Criteria for Grade Determination:

The following factors will be considered in grading the assignments: accuracy (e.g, legally correct and in compliance with our client’s intent), completeness, clarity, quality, neatness, organization, presentation, and timeliness.

Academic Honesty

It is the aim of the faculty of Texas Tech University to foster a spirit of complete honesty and high standard of integrity. The attempt of students to present as their own any work not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offenders liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

“Scholastic dishonesty” includes, but it not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of essentially the same written assignment for two courses without the prior permission of the instructor) or the attempt to commit such an act.

- a. “Cheating” includes, but is not limited to:
- (1) Copying from another student’s test paper;
 - (2) Using during a test materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
 - (3) Failing to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test;
 - (4) Possession during a test of materials that are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed “crib notes.” The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation only if they have been specifically prohibited by the person administering the test.
 - (5) Using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or in part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
 - (6) Collaborating with or seeking aid or receiving assistance from another student or individual during a test or in conjunction with other assignment without authority;
 - (7) Discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination;
 - (8) Divulging the contents of an examination for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another when the instructor has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned to or kept by the student;
 - (9) Substituting for another person or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take a course, a test, or any course-related assignment;
 - (10) Paying or offering money or other valuable thing to or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or information about an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
 - (11) Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit; and

- (12) Taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of the university or of another if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct.

b. “Plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation of, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means material that is attributable in whole or in part to another source, including words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, other expression and media, and presenting that material as one’s own academic work being offered for credit.

c. “Collusion” includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.

d. “Falsifying academic records” includes, but is not limited to, altering or assisting in the altering of any official record of the university and/or submitting false information or omitting requested information that is required for or related to any academic record of the university. Academic records include, but are not limited to, applications for admission, the awarding of a degree, grade reports, test papers, registration materials, grade change forms, and reporting forms used by the Office of the Registrar. A former student who engages in such conduct is subject to a bar against readmission, revocation of a degree, and withdrawal of a diploma.

e. “Misrepresenting facts” to the university or an agent of the university includes, but is not limited to, providing false grades or resumes; providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual; or providing false or misleading information in an effort to injure another student academically or financially.

Disability Statement: OP 34.22

Any student who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the Assistant Dean for Student Life John Delony as soon as possible to make any necessary arrangements. Students should present appropriate verification from Student Disability Services during the Assistant Dean’s office hours. Please note that classroom accommodations cannot be provided to a student until appropriate verification from Student Disability Services has been submitted. For additional information, you may contact the Student Disability Services office in 335 West Hall or 806-742-2405.

Observance of a Religious Holy Day

Texas House Bill 256 requires institutions of higher education to excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day. The student shall also be excused for time necessary to travel. An institution may not penalize the student for the absence and allows for the student to take an exam or complete an assignment from which the student is excused. No prior notification of the instructor is required. However, the student must notify the professor at some point to make sure that the absence is not counted against him or her.
