Office Hours:

Whenever I am in my office — below are typical times (but subject to change):

Monday through Thursday:

10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Friday:

No set times.

E-mail List:

It is essential that you register for e-mail updates as these updates serve as the official source of all class announcements. Please submit your name and preferred e-mail address to me directly or via e-mail if you are not already receiving class announcements.

Attendance:

Your grade will be affected by class participation (details below) and attendance. I reserve the right to raise or lower your grade based on class participation and/or absences. I also reserve the right to lower grades for students whose absences exceed my policy. This includes the possibility of being removed from the class prior to the final exam and not receiving credit for the course.

- You are expected to attend every class meeting.
- Prompt Arrival: You are expected to be in your seat and ready to begin when class is scheduled to start. It is unprofessional and impolite to arrive at or after the start of class. Attendance will be taken via TopHat immediately before class starts.
- Tardy: You are tardy if you (1) arrive late, (2) leave early, or (3) leave in the middle of class and return. Three tardies equates to one absence. (If you are really creative, you could come late, leave and return during class, and then leave early and get one absence in one day even though you are in class for awhile!)
- Excessive Absences: Other than in exceptional circumstances, if you accrue eight (8) or more absences, you will be automatically dropped from this course. Notice will be provided after the seventh absence. You may petition for relief from this rule by submitting a sworn affidavit along with supporting materials to document the reason for your absences. Note that your petition must show a justifiable reason for all your absences, not just the eighth and subsequent absences.

Class Preparation:

- You must be prepared for every class.
- You must be prepared to discuss the assigned material.
- Twenty percent of your grade is based on short in-class quizzes.

The American Bar Association standards for accrediting law schools contain a formula for calculating the amount of work that constitutes one credit hour. According to ABA Standard 310(b)(1), a “credit hour” is “an amount of work that reasonably approximates: (1) not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work per week for fifteen weeks, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time....” This is a four-credit class, meaning that we will spend four 50-minute blocks of time together in the classroom each week and you will spend at least two hours working outside of the classroom for each class. All told, applying the ABA standard to the number of credits offered for this class, you should plan on spending a minimum of 12 hours per week (4 in class and at least 8 preparing for class) on course-related work.

Technology Etiquette:

- Turn off all mobile communication devices including cell phones prior to the beginning of class.
- Boot up computers before class starts.
- Turn off computer audio.
- Disable distracting screen savers.
- Use an adequately charged battery or a power cord to avoid running out of power and the associated low battery warning noises.
- Do not use your computer for purposes that are not related to class. For example, do not write or reply to e-mail or instant messages, surf the Internet, SnapChat, tweet, work on your Facebook or LinkedIn page, etc.

Syllabus:

Assignments are subject to change. Updates will be sent to all students via e-mail.

Course Purpose:

The purpose of this course is to provide students with an introduction to the basic law governing real and personal property in the United States.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, a student will have acquired knowledge of how to handle a variety of matters concerning real and personal property. The specific tasks the student will be able to complete include the following:

- Determine the attributes of property.
- Critique the role of property in society.
- Determine the ownership of found personal property.
- Ascertain liability in bailment situations.
- Prioritize the rights of parties when personal property is purchased, possessed by someone without the owner’s authority, or improved by mistake.
- Recognize whether a person has made a donative transfer either while alive or at death.
- Classify freehold estates and determine rights of the parties.
- Classify future interests and determine rights of the parties.
- Determine rights of parties when property is concurrently owned.
- Explain the basic operation of landlord-tenant law.
- Summarize how to create, classify, interpret, and enforce easements, profits, and licenses.
- Identify, distinguish, interpret, and enforce real covenants and equitable servitudes.
- Discuss non-volitional interests in land including the right to be free from nuisance, support of land, drainage of surface water, water in watercourses, groundwater, minerals, and airspace.
- Describe how to buy, sell, and transfer real property.

- Resolve conflicts that may arise in the transfer of real property.
- Identify the elements of a valid deed.
- Prioritize the rights of conflicting claimants to the same parcel of real property.
- Explain the methods of assuring title to real property.

Method of Assessing Learning Outcomes:

Examinations:

Three exams will be given:

- a one hour practice exam on a date to be determined [0% of grade]
- a two hour mid-term exam on March 4, 2019 [40% of grade]
- a two hour final examination on May 14, 2019 [40% of grade].

The exams will include essay and objective questions.

Class Preparation:

- Brief in-class quizzes (not announced ahead of time) (20%).

Experiential Exercises:

You will prepare an assignment from the SKILLS & VALUES: PROPERTY book. Further instructions will be provided in class regarding the procedure to sign up for an exercise as an individual, in teams, or as a group. The due date is April 18, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. but early submissions are encouraged.

The exercise will be scored on a twenty point scale from +20 to -20. This score will then be computed with your examination and class preparation scores to determine your grade.

Criteria for Grade Determination:

Examinations and Quizzes:

The following factors will be considered in grading the examinations and quizzes: accuracy (e.g., legally correct), completeness (e.g., number of issues spotted), and analysis (including organization, clarity, quality, and presentation).

Experiential Exercises:

The exercises will be evaluated on whether the materials you submit represent a comprehensive, professional, and thoughtful completion of the tasks (in other words, as if you are an attorney handling the cases for your clients).

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is required at all times. Please review Texas Tech OP 34.12. Like the legal profession, the School of Law is governed by ethical principles, which are set forth in the School of Law's Honor Code. Attempts by students to present as their own work any work that they have not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a serious offense and renders offenders liable to serious consequences, including even suspension or expulsion from the School of Law.

Disability Statement: OP 34.22

Any student who, because of disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact Sofia Chapman, Associate Dean for Student Life, as soon as possible to make any necessary arrangements. Students should present appropriate verification from Student Disability Services to Dean Chapman. Please note that classroom accommodations cannot be provided to a student until appropriate verification from Student Disability Services has been submitted. For additional information, you may contact the Student Disability Services Office at 335 West Hall or 806-742-2405.

Observance of a Religious Holy Day

Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code, which is reflected in TTU OP 34.19, provides excused absences for religious holy days. A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the professor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from class for the observation of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence. A student who is excused from class under this policy may not be penalized for the absence; however, the professor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.

Discrimination, Harassment, and Sexual Violence

Texas Tech University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from gender and/or sex discrimination of any kind. Sexual assault, discrimination, harassment, and other Title IX violations are not tolerated by the University. Report any incidents to the Office for Student Rights & Resolution, (806)-742-SAFE (7233) or file a report online at titleix.ttu.edu/students.
